

ELEVATE™

Unify your parking data. Drive results.

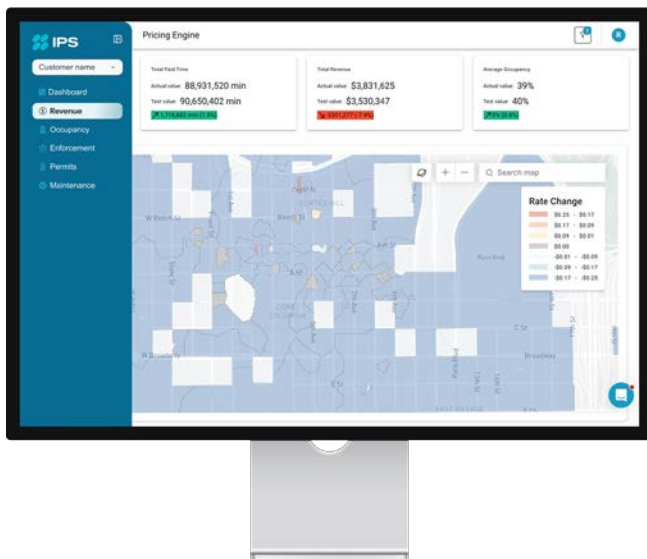

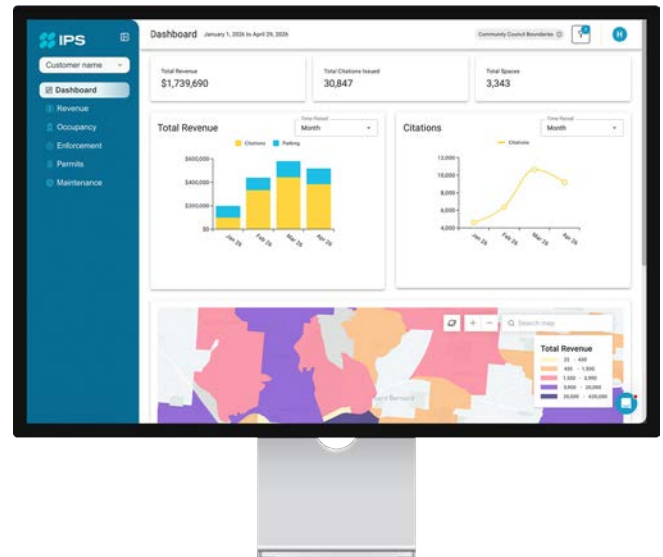

Elevate brings parking and curb data from any source into a single dashboard, turning complexity into clear direction your team can act on immediately. Spot opportunities as they emerge, catch issues before they escalate, and drive results across your entire operation.

Integrate parking and mobility data from multiple providers and legacy sources:

Transform your parking operations data:

- Make historic data usable for present and future systems
- Display activity in a single dashboard and map views
- Create consistent, ready-to-use graphs and reports
- Conduct strategic analysis with AI assistance
- Use occupancy and demand data to take swift action

Drive results that vastly improve your operations:

- Streamline rates and manage policies with one click
- Maximize the value of your parking assets
- Reduce operating costs
- Manage curb space (deliveries, ride-hailing, shared mobility)
- Maintain compliance
- Optimize the overall parking experience
